What is it about Social Planning Cowichan that draws you to being a board member?

How do you feel you could contribute to Social Planning Cowichan? What do you hope to gain from the experience?

Please tell us anything else you'd like to share.

Thank you for applying, following are some of the answers to popular questions asked by potential members

- Social Planning Cowichan (SPC) board meets a minimum of four times per year and the board receives monthly updates on activities
- Members are encouraged to participate in events whenever possible and encouraged to sit on committees that SPC is appointed to in the community
- Terms are for a two year period
- SPC carries Board Protection insurance at all times and provides orientation training to all new board members

"Being a board member of Social Planning Cowichan allows me to be connected to issues that matter in our Communities. It provides me with the opportunity to contribute my one small piece of a collective of pieces to improve health outcomes for all citizens across our region."

-Board Liaison Cindy Lise, Our Cowichan
